

SHERBORNE SCHOOL.

CHRISTMAS EXAMINATION, 1899. Friday, 15th December.

Lower School.

Grammar. A.

1. Decline—ales, praedo, fructus, cuspis, ius.
2. Give the gender and ablative singular of—municeps, papilio, aequor, consuetudo, piper, tridens, far, litus, panis, elephas.
3. Write out in full the present subjunctive of nitor, reor, domo, and the imperfect subjunctive of possum, eo, fio.
4. Give the perfect (1st person) and supine of—doceo, neo, peto, indulgeo, repo, coquo, prodo, texo.
5. From what verbs do the following participles come—lapsus, fossus, quassus, sartus, lautus, adultus?
6. Translate, explaining any construction :—
 - (a) Pericles quadraginta annos praefuit Athenis.
 - (b) Hieme omnia bella conquiescunt.
 - (c) Quod non opus est, asse carum est.
 - (d) Aiunt vitam esse somnium.
7. Put into Latin :—
 - (a) I hear that you have bought the house.
 - (b) This is the house which Jack built.
 - (c) This is the house which was built by Jack.
 - (d) Very many islands are larger than Sicily.
 - (e) I fear that he will not come.