

YULE - TIDE.

Words by
JAMES H.F. PEILE.

Music by BERTHOLD G. THORNE.

Allegro con spirito.

SOPRANO.

ALTO.

TENOR.

BASS.

Allegro con spirito.

ACCOMP:
(for practice only)

hall is fine, The board is set with Christ-mas fare, The Beef, the Pas - ty hall is fine, The board is set with Christ-mas fare, The Beef, the Pas - ty hall is fine, The board is set with Christ-mas fare, The Beef, the Pas - ty hall is fine, The board is set with Christ-mas fare, The Beef, the Pas - ty

a tempo.

joy - ly friends and kin com - bine To wish us joy on Christ - mas day, When

a tempo.

joy - ly friends and kin com - bine To wish us joy on Christ - mas day, When

a tempo.

joy - ly friends and kin com - bine To wish us joy on Christ - mas day, When

a tempo.

joy - ly friends and kin com - bine To wish us joy on Christ - mas day, When

allargando.

jol - ly friends and kin com - bine To wish us joy on Christ - mas day.

allargando.

jol - ly friends and kin com - bine To wish us joy on Christ - mas day.

allargando.

jol - ly friends and kin com - bine To wish us joy on Christ - mas day.

allargando.

jol - ly friends and kin com - bine To wish us joy on Christ - mas day.

Meno mosso e doloroso.

Yet sha - dowy fa - ces meet us there And dim the spar - kle of the wine, Lost

Yet sha - dowy fa - ces meet us there And dim the spar - kle of the wine, Lost

Yet sha - dowy fa - ces meet us there And dim the spar - kle of the wine, Lost

Yet sha - dowy fa - ces meet us there And dim the spar - kle of the wine, Lost

Meno mosso e doloroso.

com - rades of the days that were, Whose feet have crossed the

com - rades of the days that were, Whose feet have crossed the

com - rades of the days that were, Whose feet have crossed the

com - rades of the days that were, Whose feet have crossed the

nar - row line, O dark - ened eyes where love did shine, O

nar - row line, O dark - ened eyes where love did shine, O

nar - row line, O dark - ened eyes where love did shine, O

nar - row line, O dark - ened eyes where love did shine, O

cresc.

p

si - lent lips that once were gay - They an - swer not, they

si - lent lips that once were gay - They an - swer not, they

si - lent lips that once were gay - They an - swer not, they

si - lent lips that once were gay - They an - swer not, they

cresc.

con dolore e passione.

cresc.

con dolore e passione.

cresc.

con dolore e passione.

cresc.

con dolore e passione.

make no sign To wish us joy on Christ - mas day -

make no sign To wish us joy on Christ - mas day -

make no sign To wish us joy on Christ - mas day -

make no sign To wish us joy on Christ - mas day -

cresc.

mp con tenerezza.

My Mas - ters, each his load must bear, It serv - eth not to

mp con tenerezza.

My Mas - ters, each his load must bear, It serv - eth not to

mp con tenerezza.

My Mas - ters, each his load must bear, It serv - eth not to

mp con tenerezza.

My Mas - ters, each his load must bear, It serv - eth not to

mp con tenerezza.

crusc.

wail and whine; Tis care for oth - ers light - ens care, And Mer - cy mak - eth

crusc.

wail and whine; Tis care for oth - ers light - ens care, And Mer - cy mak - eth

crusc.

wail and whine; Tis care for oth - ers light - ens care, And Mer - cy mak - eth

crusc.

wail and whine; Tis care for oth - ers light - ens care, And Mer - cy mak - eth

crusc.

poco rit.

man di - vine, There be for ve - ry want that pine, (The

poco rit.

man di - vine, There be for ve - ry want that pine, (The

poco rit.

man di - vine, There be for ve - ry want that pine, (The

poco rit.

man di - vine, There be for ve - ry want that pine, (The

ppoco rit.

Tempo I.

poor, saith One, ye have al - way) Go hale them in, and poor, saith One, ye have al - way) Go hale them in, and poor, saith One, ye have al - way) Go hale them in, and poor, saith One, ye have al - way) Go hale them in, and

bid them dine, To wish us joy on Christ - mas day, Go

bid them dine, To wish us joy on Christ - mas day, Go

bid them dine, To wish us joy on Christ - mas day, Go

bid them dine, To wish us joy on Christ - mas day, Go

hale them in, and bid them dine, To wish us joy on Christ - mas day.

hale them in, and bid them dine, To wish us joy on Christ - mas day.

hale them in, and bid them dine, To wish us joy on Christ - mas day.

hale them in, and bid them dine, To wish us joy on Christ - mas day.

YULE-TIDE

The Christmas bells are in the air,
With Christmas boughs the Hall is fine,
The board is set with Christmas fare,
The Beef, the Pasty, and the Chine:
To mirth and song men's hearts incline,
Ill fall the churl that says them nay,
When jolly friends and kin combine
To wish us joy on Christmas day.

Yet shadowy faces meet us there,
And dim the sparkle of the wine,
Lost comrades of the days that were,
Whose feet have crossed the narrow line,
O darkened eyes where love did shine,
O silent lips that once were gay –
They answer not, they make no sign
To wish us joy on Christmas day.

My masters, each his load must bear,
It serveth nought to wail and whine:
'Tis care for others lightens care,
And mercy maketh man divine,
There be for very wan that pine,
(the poor, saith One, ye have always)
Go hale them in, bid them dine,
To wish us joy on Christmas day.

Words by James Hamilton Francis Peile (1863-1940).
Score by Berthold George Thorne (1874-1944).
Published in The Songs of Sherborne School (1898).